Footnotes:
(1) Heb 12:27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.
(2) The words you are reading began coming in the year 2003, over fours years ago now.
(3) 2 Sam 12:7-8 … This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you from the hand of Saul. I gave your master's house to you, and your master's wives into your arms. I gave you the house of Israel and Judah. And if all this had been too little, I would have given you even more.
(4) Gen 25:33 But Jacob said, "Swear to me first." So he swore an oath to him, selling his birthright to Jacob. Gen 25:34 Then Jacob gave Esau some bread and some lentil stew. He ate and drank, and then got up and left. So Esau despised his birthright.
